LOST SPACES AND ANCIENT PLACES: CARTOGRAPHY IN THE RARE BOOK COLLECTION

Our library houses many books on plant exploration and travel. Whether chasing down spices, birds or trade routes, the adventurers on our shelves kept good records and spectacular maps. See regions re-named, countries extinct, and borders in utter and fascinating disarray. To attend, you must have previously taken the introductory class "Archetypes of the Rare Book Collection."

Sunday, , March 11 from 2 - 3:00 pm

$12 members / $17 non-members

Proceeds from these programs will be used for the conservation of our rare books.
